

Digital Media Checklist

Resource Title:

Resource URL:

Date Reviewed:

License Type:

Content

Does the resource address the lesson objectives?

Does the resource creator have appropriate experience, expertise, and/or credentials?

Is the information in the resource accurate and up-to-date?

Is the resource peer reviewed?

Quality

Is the resource free from spelling errors, typos, and grammatical mistakes?

Do images, audio, videos, and other elements in the resource work as expected?

Are the multimedia elements in the resource high quality?

Do all of the links in the resource work?

Is the resource easy to navigate?

Accessibility

Are transcripts and/or subtitles available for video and audio elements of the resource?

Do images in the resource have alternate text?

Does the resource have good color contrast?

Can the text in the resource be resized?

Licensing

Does the license allow for reuse of the resource?

Does the license allow for modification of the resource?